

Peace Music Ministry

Ric Jaeggi, Director of Music

The Music Ministry at Peace, wishes to thank you for taking a moment to read this brochure, describing the many musical offerings of Peace Lutheran Church.

We trust you have found several concerts to your liking and marked them on your calendar. There is always a light reception following performances. It is our hope that you will stay, enjoy the refreshments and make some new friends.

“Music at Peace” concerts accept free-will donations, unless otherwise noted. The gifts collected go to support the annual music budget of the Church. Purchasing music, tuning pianos and artists’ honorariums are just a few of the examples of the many costs of producing the “Music at Peace”. All gifts are tax deductible.

Most importantly, we thank you for the contribution of your attendance. Your presence helps as we share the joy that is music, past, present and future.

Music At Peace

2023-2024

With great joy, we offer this celebration of music as uniquely presented by Peace Lutheran Church for the 2023-2024 concert season.

We have many talented people within our church family and friends. We are pleased to share those talents with you and your friends.

Please save the dates now and come find musical renewal in our beautiful Sanctuary.

This is an open invitation, All are welcome. Come share moments of exquisite joy, sounds of silence and orderly cacophony.

Advent Choral Concert-
The Peace Festival Choir
December 3, 2023 at 3:00pm

Let All Mortal Flesh Be Silent, with its roots in the Liturgy of St. James in the fourth century, leads us into the Great O Antiphons, yet another "old" liturgy piece known to us as "O Come O Come Emmanuel". These "carols" still in use today, remind us of the great gift of the nativity. So we will join the song of old with a Carol Sing. Bring a friend and your voice. Hot chocolate and cookies will be shared in fellowship, in the Good Samaritan Hall.

"The Holy Boy"
Sunday, December 17, 2023
at 5:30pm

Please join the Fort Myers Symphonic Mastersingers, City of Palms Youth Choir, Intermezzo Choir and orchestra for their Christmas concert, "The Holy Boy". The choirs will sign many songs of the season by composers Mendelssohn, Handel and Rutter, as well as some of your familiar favorites! A free-will offering will be accepted. They will be back in April!!!

A free will offering will be accepted
at unticketed concerts.

"Amor Against All Odds"
January 14, 2024 at 3:00pm

Back by popular demand, soprano Stephanie Lorenz and pianist Janet Carter are thrilled to share their deep love of music with this new concert. The delightful duo will be presenting an exciting and spicy program with works in Italian, Spanish and English by composers such as Handel, Mozart, Rossini and more! Join us for a fun afternoon of stunning music with clever poetry centered around the many experience, definitions and shades of love.

Just Nice Choral Music
February 25, 2024 at 3:00pm

The choir of St. Hilary Episcopal church, back by popular demand, and under the direction of Lester Erich, will join forces with our Peace Festival Choir for an afternoon of just nice choral music. Last year's concert was so well received that we have heard the cry for one more time. More favorites and NEW favorites will be sung. Don't be late. Stay for the fellowship in the Good Samaritan Hall.

Sanibel Music Festival
March 5, 9, 12, 16, 19 & 23

Sanibel's acclaimed concert series will be returning to Peace Lutheran Church in 2024, for another stellar season of outstanding musical performances. Please mark your calendars and call 239-344-7025, to order your tickets. Last year we were able to host this wonderful group and it was truly a blessing.

Mark Sanders, Artist in Residence

Mark always wows us with his beautiful renditions of popular and gospel songs. His stories touch our hearts and give each song a special meaning that will stay with you long after the concert! To find where he is performing next, visit his website at www.MarkSandersNYC.com
